

ACTIVATED SLUDGE PROCESS

Activated sludge process is to treat sewage and industrial wastewater using air and a biological floc composed of bacteria

Key Features:

- Efficient removal of BOD, COD in the presence of microbial suspension
- Biological nitrification without adding chemicals
- Solids and liquids separation
- Cost effective & Easy maintenance

Application:

- Sewage treatment
- Effluent treatment

murugappa